Learning opportunities and experiences:

Are you making the most of our lending libraries?

You can borrow library books from the corridor and when your child is ready to read there are easy phonetic reading books available.

Maths games can be borrowed from outside Chestnut classroom.

Outdoors:

- Going on a scavenger hunt for natural autumnal objects to develop maths skills
- developing imaginative skills
- investigating the world around us
- working on literacy skills

Forest School:

- reading and responding to Bog Baby
- making mini dens
- mixing armpit angel delight

Indoors:

- Brushing porridge away to acknowledge reveal print carries meaning
- Developing our communication by saying what we see
- Constructing and positioning shape during play
- Making belief by pretending through using our senses

You are invited to:

- taste school meals on Friday 4th October 3.45pm to 5.15pm
- play and learn on Monday 7th October 9.00am to 9.30am
