Learning opportunities and experiences:

This week the children will walk to Hirst Wood for a special story time in the woods. Please make sure that your child is wearing warm clothes and trousers on Tuesday 3rd December and Thursday 5th December. If possible also provide wellies. Half the class will go on the walk on each date whilst the other half stay in school.

Outdoors:

- visiting the woods
- developing physical skills
- using our literacy and mathematical skills
- learning about the world around us

Indoors:

- counting and comparing quantities
- introducing the concept of time
- learning letters and sounds
- developing scissor skills

Dates for your diary:
